

Raihana Haque, Bangladesh

She is a highly motivated English teacher and trainer in her Upazila from 2003 to till date. By tele-conferencing, she has exchanged the educational programmes and delivered online guest lecture across the nation and abroad. She has designed eBook for Ministry of Education. In Bangladesh teacher's portal she is an ICT4 ambassador. She participated and coordinated in British Councils' online schools forum. Her schools have received British Councils ISA Award for 2017 to 2019 by her efforts. She is also a MIE expert from 2017 to 2019, Skype master teacher and Minecraft Mentor.

In addition to this she is also a host of central TweetMeet MSTeduchat. She is working on a lot of international projects like Climate action, Link to the world, Obesity, Girls never look back, World literacy, World peace song, Innovation projects etc. Moreover, she has been selected the National Geography Certified Teacher in 2018. She has been selected Teach SDGs Ambassadors in 2019.

Being expert of braille language, she is also teaching visually impaired students.. Being a good teacher, she had visited Japan under the "Japan International Cooperation Agency" (JICA).

Being best divisional teacher, Bangladesh Government sent her to Thailand. As a MIE expert this year she has joined E2 in Singapore and is the winner of lesson Algorithmic thinking. She was National Geography Certified Teacher in 2018.

Many of her students got admission in the various university, medical colleges, engineering colleges.