

Shkendije Nagavci,, Kosovo

Shkendije Nagavci, is a teacher in the school with the largest number of pupils in Kosovo. She has 29 years of work experience in various fields. She is a Trainer of Critical Thinking and have lectured in many trainings programmes for students and teachers under the the Ministry of Education of Kosovo in different schools throughout the country. Her main emphasize is how to develop critical thinking in the childrens. She has got many national and international awards to her credit. Authored books for students. She won the prestigious national "Shaban Jashari" prize & Teacher of the Year award for her outstanding contributions in educations

She is a part of the network of innovative teachers working in Europe and the world. Her project "Fractions Everywhere",won the first place Kosovo. Also participated in the Global Forum in Prague.

Her students won 1st places in the national level Kosovo Contest program in cooperation with KEC. Furthermore her pupils created the short film "Do not abuse animals", which was nominated for the first place in the Junior Oscar festival organized by Kosovo by USAIDin 2016.