

Abdallah Wahbi

Presently, working as Primary School Teacher in Almassira Alkhadra in Morocco with teaching experience of seventeen years. He has done various National and International training to upgrade his knowledge sphere. He is also renowned educational trainer in his country. He established and animated for protection of environment. Konouz organization honored him as the “Man of the Year” for his outstanding contributions. His contributions in the development of the region through his efforts in education were highly appreciated by higher authorities of his country.

He was honored by his majesty king Mohamed VI with the royal order of National Merit of the excellent class. He digitalizes the remote school in Tiznit Directorate and integrated the ICT in classrooms; His work has been published in Moroccan Sahara by Ministry of Education. He is presently member of various organizations globally