Asawari Shiposkar

She is an innovative lecturer having more than 23 years of experience in education and corporate. She has helped her students achieve good grade from marginal grade through her innovative practices. She is imparting digital skills to young innovators and is master trainer of SAP and Niti Aayog. She has trained about 3000 people in various soft skills. She created online portal for tracking student's progress. She uploaded online courses in Marathi language on Udemy and benefited 530students of 44 countries. She published 14 books and 5 papers in National and International conferences. She acted as conveyor of screening committee for inspection of National Institute of Electronics and Information Technologies