

Bhagwat Prasad Patel

Presently is working as District Inspector of School (DIOS) of district Jalaun ,U.P. with 30 years of vast experience in the field of education. He has worked more than above in many new areas of education, social and in other walks of life. He got the first national award started by the NUEPA National Award for innovation in educational administration in 2013-14 by MHRD, Govt. of India for increasing literacy rate of “sahariya tribes” in backward region Bundelkhand district Lalitpur from 17% in 2001 census to 28% in 2011 census.

He motivated the students to conserve energy and help in enhancing the saving skills of energy. Tremendous efforts in increasing literacy for voter's awareness and achieved 10% increase in vote percent of last U.P. assembly and parliament general election. For These efforts he has been honoured with state level special award for sweep in 25 January 2018 by Mr. Ram naik governer U.P. Kaun Banega Nanha Kalam is an innovative project where 48000 students has been benefited by his efforts. Now his project is being implemented in 11 district of U.P. as model. He promoted the girls education in backward region in bundelkhand district-jalaun, lalitpur, farrukhabad, muradabad benefiting 500 girls by this scheme. He 12 students were selected in different services like railways, police, education and army.