

Lidija

She is doctor of philological sciences, professor of Serbian language and literature. Her resourcefulness, creativity and outstanding teaching practice, proved by numerous prizes and awards which rank among the most innovative teachers of our city, Republic, regions of the world. She has 28 years of experience in education. Using various methods and technologies in the educational and scientific work, she contributes to improving the quality of the institution in teaching and extracurricular activities. She holds various positions as pedagogical advisor, educational counsellors – associates, scientific collaborator faculty of Philology, Associate member of the editorial board and proof-reader "Modern teaching" - professional books in the fields of education, Podgorica, President of the Association of Serbian language and literature Serbia – Sombor. She is Board member Foremost Foundation and ambassador of Serbia (one of the world's largest educational organizations).

She has won 60 awards of republic by the Ministry of Education R. YEM and the Society of Serbian language and literature Serbia for tutoring students who won one of three first places in national competitions: Serbian language and linguistic culture, linguistics, literature, She is only double winner of the "Dr George Natošević". Awarded by the Provincial Department of Education for her outstanding contributions to education.

Her students participated in several international projects, such as: 9 eTwinning projects (one of them: "Universality of Literature" won the national quality mark, and with him compete for this year's European quality label); "A magical Friendship Network" (international project with over 10,000 participants); STEM project "Innovate your Dreams" (60000 students - participants from all continents), in which he was a participant and coordinator for Serbia; "Cubes and Spase" (NASA research project) - together with the students had two projects approved.

She is perennial collaborator in three scientific research project of the Department of Slavic Studies at Karl-Granc Medicine in Graz, Austria. 27 Scientific papers published in professional journals kategorizovanim in Austria, Slovenia, BIH, R. Croatia, the US, Russia, R. Serbia. She is certified "Innovative Educator". Ambassador of the educational program "Owlypia", London, United Kingdom, and the coordinator of the test center Owlypia in high school "Veljko Petrović". High school "Veljko Petrović" on its own initiative and engagement has become a national partner of scientific and educational program LUMA Center Finland.