

Soheir Zaki Abdel-Fattah

She is a renowned teacher of Egypt. She is a science teacher in Victoria College and has 25 years of experience in education. She is certified Microsoft Innovative Educator Expert, Minecraft Mentor and Skype Master Teacher. She is an ambassador to teach SDGs. She was only to represent Egypt as a member of Microsoft Innovative Educator Experts Team in Singapore Forum in 2018. She created new brand of summer school activities in her school. 'Fun2Learn' that depends on having fun during learning, after this her students created their own books. She is working on transforming education not only in her school but all over her country. She trained teachers in her country with the latest knowledge on use of technology in teaching and imparted them skills of 21st century. She has many awards to her credit, some of them are - Educational Proficiency Syndicate Award, E2 Global Winner, Outstanding Performance Award in E2-Egypt, British Council Coordinator of International School Award. She is now doing studies on managing behavior in learning in stem teaching. She is doing several educational project besides teaching, some of them are - Positive Learning Environment, This Is Egypt, The World We Want, Fun2Learn Club.

She also took part in International projects (Human Differences Project Climate Action Project, Innovation Project, Way to Peace Project, ISA projects).She has participated in several international conferences.

MIIEF